ORDINANCE NO. SP-120, S-93

AN ORDINANCE AMENDING CERTAIN PROVISIONS OF ORDINANCE NO. SP-89, S-93 BY EXTENDING THE PERIOD OF AVAILMENT FOR TAX RELIEF FOR DELINQUENT REAL PROPERTIES IN QUEZON CITY UP TO DECEMBER 31, 1993.

Introduced by Councilor MOISES S. SAMSON.

WHEREAS, Ordinance No. SP-55, S-93, which was enacted and approved by the City Council granted relief to delinquent real property taxpayers of Quezon City with respect to interests and penalties on their real property tax, subject to certain conditions, which specified therein among other, its period of availment from March 15, 1993 up to June 30, 1993;

WHEREAS, with the concerted efforts put up by all concerned sectors of the community which included the city government, barangay officials, constituents and the taxpayers themselves, thru information and dissemination drive, the aforesaid tax relief not only has received positive response but has more than significantly generated for the city coffers, the much needed additional revenues in terms of the new collected but previously uncollected real property taxes which could be utilized to hasten the implementation of city government projects and programs towards the delivery of basic services;

WHEREAS, within a span of a little over three (3) months that the tax relief had been granted or prior to its expiry date of availment on June 30, 1993, almost Fifty Five Million Pesos (P55,000,000.00) was raised in the form of back taxes, but percentage wise the said amount is still beyond the total estimated amount of almost Four Million Pesos (P4,000,000.00) tax delinquencies sought to be collected;

WHEREAS, in amending Ordinance No. SP-55, S-93, the City Council passed Ordinance No. SP-89, S-93 which was approved by the Honorable City Mayor on June 29, 1993, extending until September 30, 1993 the period of availment to the tax relief in response to the clamor from the taxpayers who are willing to take advantage thereof but unintentionally might not be able to meet the deadline set thereon;
